AFS

AFS was founded in 1914 by American ambulance drivers. It is a non-profit organization which devotes its time to enabling students from all over the world to spend a year or a summer in a foreign country with a family. This year Port Clinton High School was home for Jens Hartmann from Reinbek, West-Germany. He stayed with the Rev. Robert Schefter family. At the same time Wendi Nelson, a Port Clinton Senior, was spending a year in Switzerland. Joe O'Lalde had spent the summer of 1981 in Ecuador. Next, Jackie Nehls will go to Mexico during the summer.

By far the most outstanding activity of the AFS-chapter was the International Talent Show to which many students came. Many foreign language students had a performance prepared.

Like so many years before, the AFS chapter also had a very successful spaghetti dinner in April. All the money raised by these activities will help finance placing students. Americans Abroad Coordinator for the High School was Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson.

FCA

Huddle Captains: incumbant and former

Along with the huddle meetings, FCA members enjoyed activities such as a Thanksgiving Dinner. This was a success because the fellowship and thanks to God are synonymous. Monthly, Athletes had a combined dinner meeting with a guest speaker. To conclude the year, the huddle members had a conference with guest speaker, Nick "the Greek."

A COMPANY OF WAYWARD SAINTS

The Drama Club's production, "A Company of Wayward Saints", was presented to the public the 7 and 8 of Nov. The comedy is a social portrayal of 16th century comedians who together form a company of actors trying to raise money so they may return home. However, through scenes of birth, marriage, adolescence and death, the group is reunited and captures the true spirit of their acting.

Chapter No.134 of the International Thespians Society is dedicated to theatrical productions and the promotion of the theater arts. In its fourth year, the group's adviser is Miss Linda Rastle with Tom Fisher as president and Paul Allen as vice-president. Jennifer Martin is secretary. Representatives are Brian Oleska, Mark Allen, Chris Duhamel, Barb Imke, Betsy Fleming and Chris Ohlemaker.

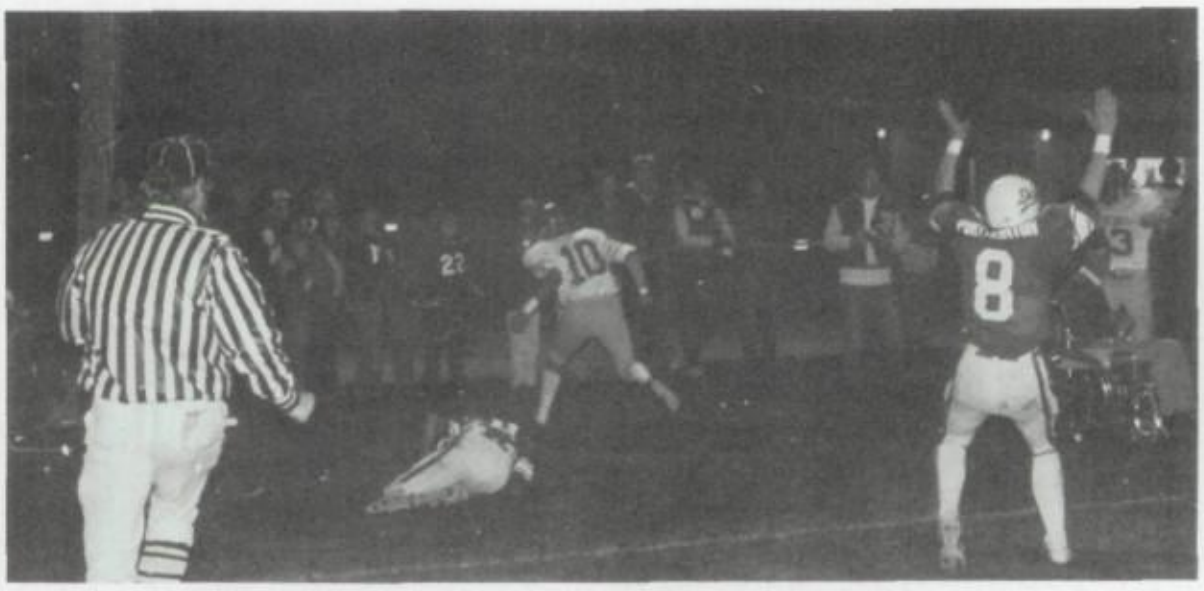
REDSKINS SUFFER 1 AND 9 SEASON

High Point PC-13, St. Joe-0

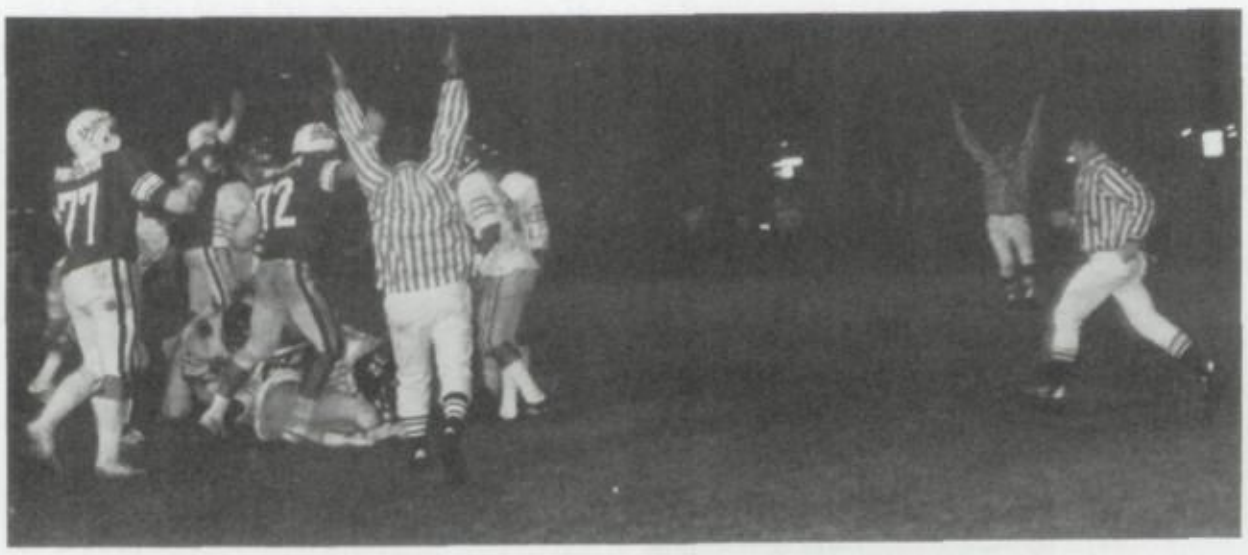
The Redskin Varsity football team suffered through a disappointing season this year. Hopes were high after PC defeated Fremont Ross in a scrimmage, but unfortunately from then on it was mostly downhill. Finally, on Parent's Night, it all came together as the team defeated Fremont St. Joe 13 to 0. The season closed with a 1 and 9 record, but next year's team seems promising with returning most valuable offensive back, Jim Bredbeck. Two other returning award winners are Bob Smith— most improved and Paul Wadsworth— most valuable specialty team. The senior award winners were: Jim Ralph, Mr. Hustle; Bob Zam, second team SBC, co-MVP; Rick Habegger, first team SBC, most valuable defensive lineman, co-MVP; and Mark Hermes, most valuable offensive lineman.

Tim Scott (42) sprints upfield.



Dave Duvall (8) celebrates Javier DeLeon's (31) touchdown.

Jim Frias (32) made the plunge for a score.



Coach Paul Hemminger and his women managers prepared this year's team.

The defense smashes the enemy.

Tom Flynn (46) fights the defense for yardage.

The defense is READY!

The defense, Ron Hatmaker (88), Steve Gutkoski (72) and Tom Flynn (46), sack the quarterback.

This year's crop of freshmen had a promising football season. Though their record was only 4 and 3, they learned many new skills and prepared themsevelves for competition on the reserve and varsity level. Hopefully they will continue progressing and have a good year next year.

RESERVE FIGHT

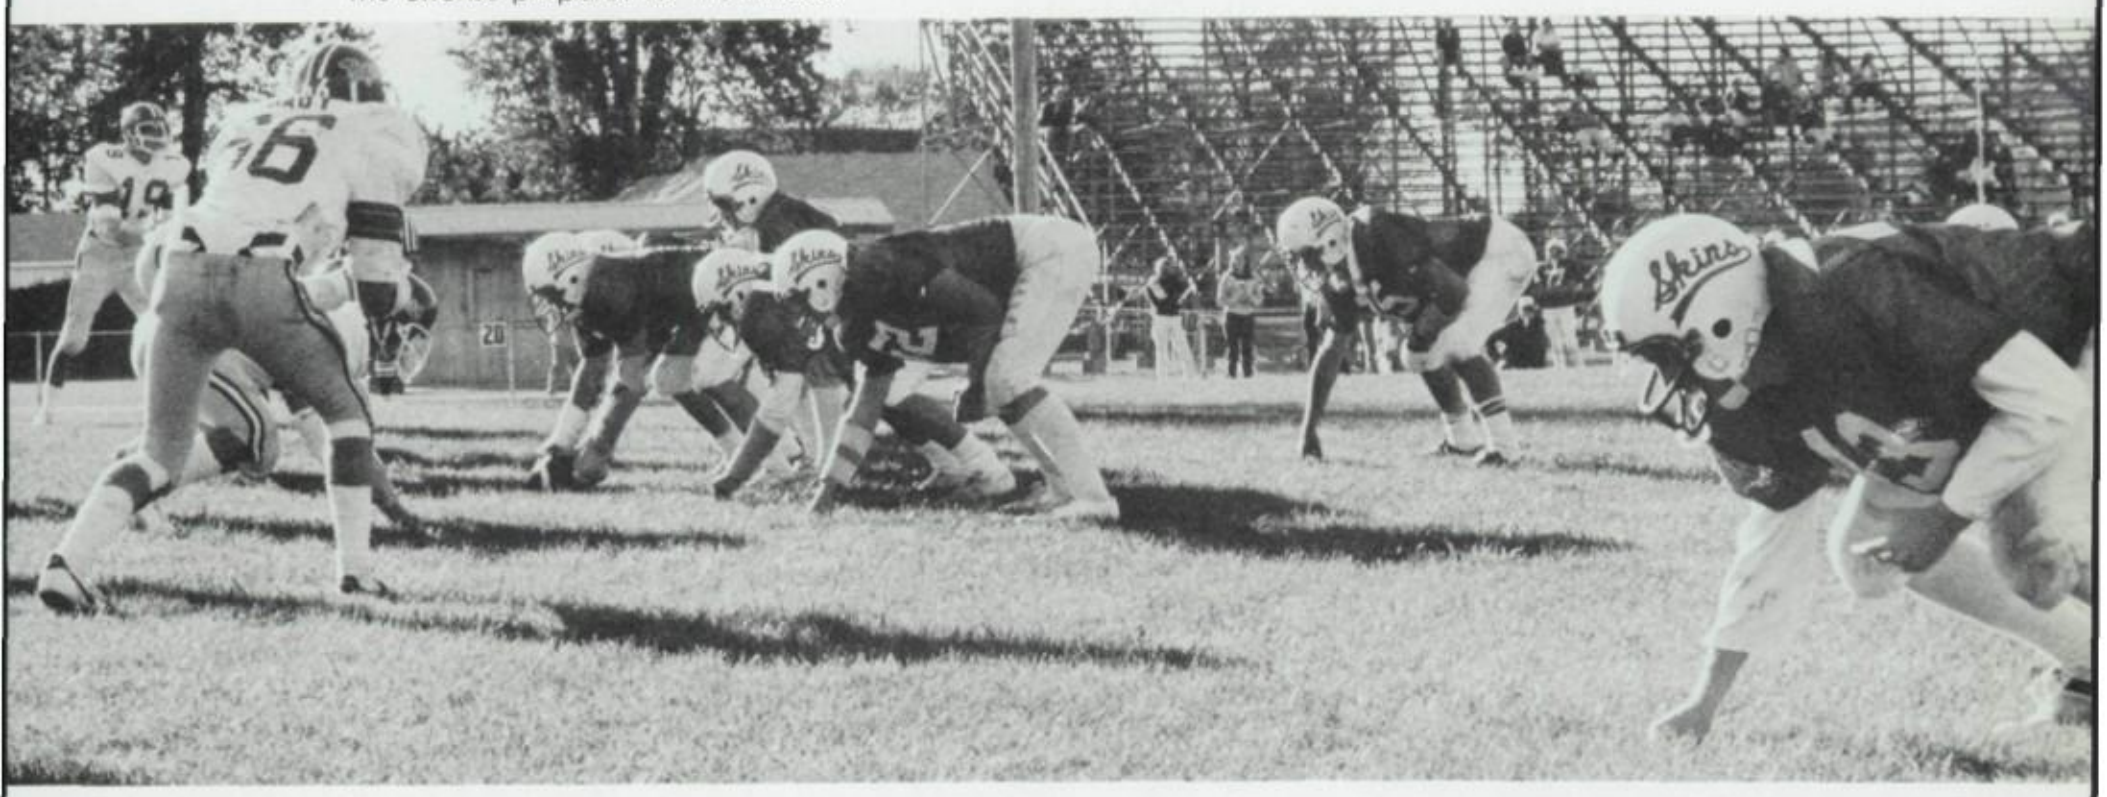
"Bulldog" Smith (21) carries the ball behind the blocking of Dave Meek (16), Jim Stefano (27) and Aebie (60).

Reserve football, like varsity, had a disappointing season. Their record was 1 and 4 with 3 games cancelled. Their one victory was over Fremont St. Joe, like the varsity. By the end of the season, the reserve players were ready to play varsity.

Arlo Says:

Bruce Celek (35) relates signals to the defense.

The offense prepares for the attack.



After a very successful championship season in 1980, a large group of athletes participated in golf in 1981, under the direction of coach Bob Polachek. Although the year was not as successful with only a 5th place finish in the S.B.C., the team did advance to the district golf tournament, at Findlay.

Receiving captains trophies were senior Tim Colston and junior John Delhees. The most improved golfer award went to sophomore Dennis Robel. Receiving several honors including most valuable golfer, was John Delhees, the leader of the team. He also earned medalist honors at the Ottawa County Golf Tournament and was named to the 2nd team all league.

With the large group of freshman golfers and the many returning lettermen, the Redskin golf team for 1982 looks very promising.

Freshman golfers: Alan Jacoby, Matt Parton, Randy Lorensen, Greg Lee, Craig Varady, Doug Larson, and Eric Friemark.

Coach Ken Gipe and his lady Redskins made a new season record with eleven wins and eight oses. Including varsity co-captins Martha Howerth and Karyn Conner, ten seniors played: Sharon Bordner, Beth Celek, Beth Colvin, Tracy Flynn, Betty Perry, Kami Rose, Jobie Wenzinger, and Brenda Wightman. Juniors included Laurie Schultz and Jeri Perry.

Pleased with their winning streak are Sharon Bordner and Mary Jo Wenzinger.

CROSS COUNTRY 7TH IN STATE

SBC Champions Second Year In League

The Cross Country Team had an outstanding year and established itself as the best team ever to come out of Port Clinton High School. The Redskin harriers raced to a 17-1 duel meet record, losing only only to Class AA power Napoleon. The Redskins ran to the Sandusky Bay Conference championship; they were the Clay Invitational runners-up, and the Sectional runners-up on October 24 at Ottawa Hills Park in Toledo. The team was led by varsity runners Jake Perry, Dave Bradshaw, Tom Day, Bob Massie, Dave St. Clair, Mike Bou-Sliman, and Paul St. Clair. For the last meet of the year all the runners pulled together and all ran strong races to finish 7th in the Boy's Team State Cross Country Meet on November 7 on the Ohio State University campus in Columbus. The highlight of the girls season was when Jerri Collins and Lisa Campbell both qualified for the district meet at Hill Crest Country Club in Findlay. Five of seven varsity runners were Seniors and ran their last Cross Country season this year, but Port Clinton hoped to field another top team as seven varsity lettermen will return.

Dave Bradshaw and Mike Bou-Sliman race for the lead.

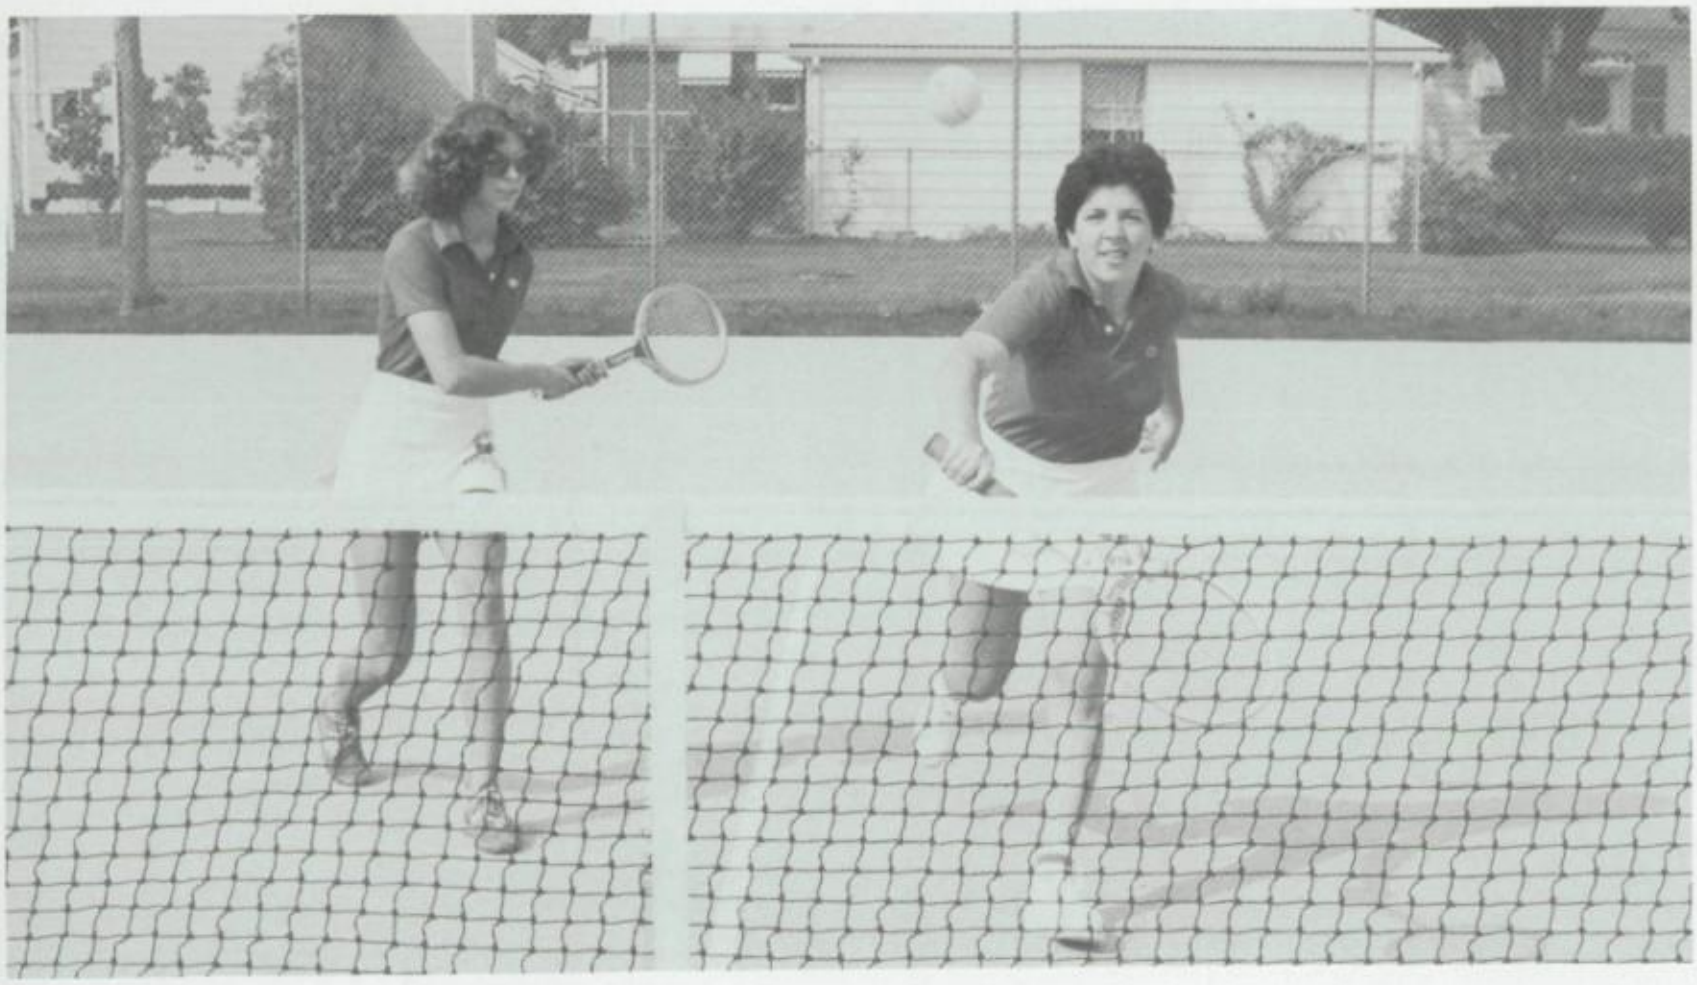
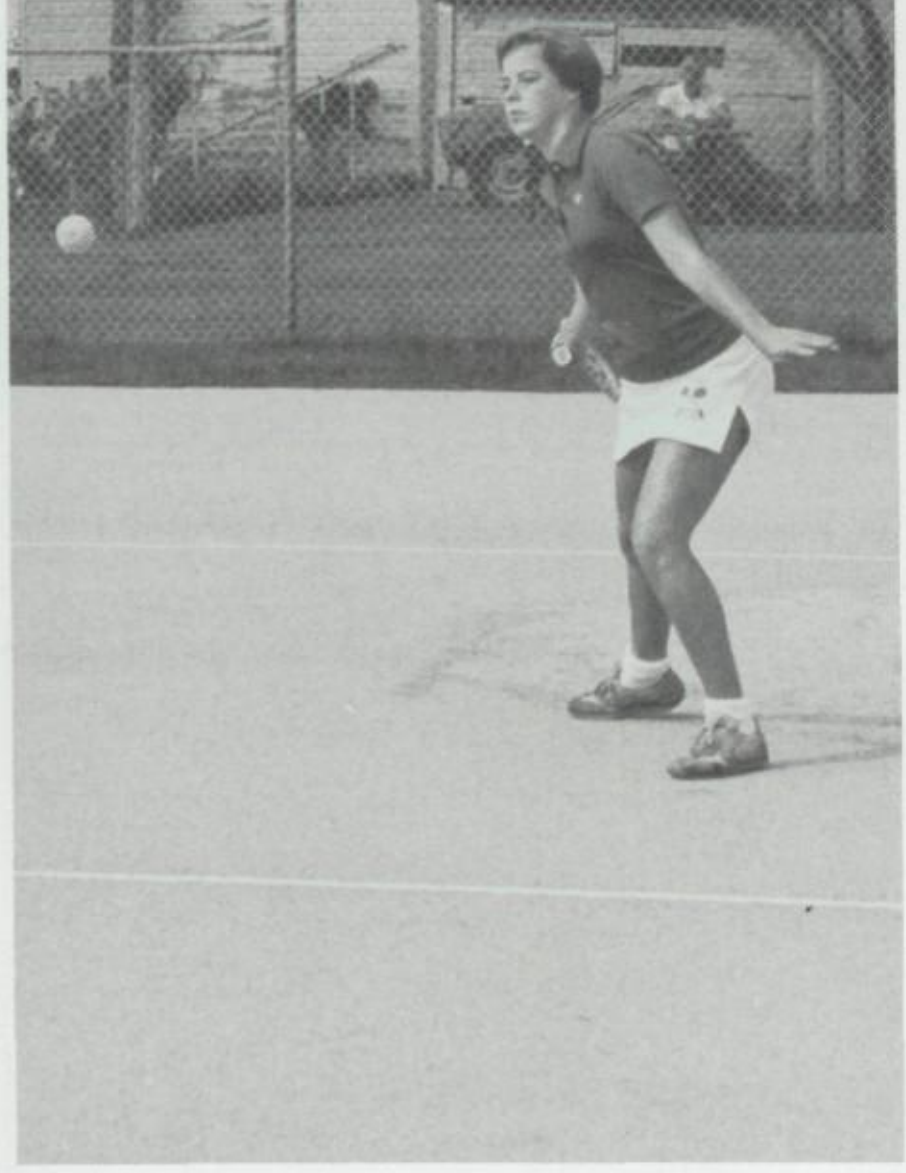
GIRLS' TENNIS HAS BRIGHT FUTURE

The Tennis Team had a fine season despite the fact it had only two seniors on the squad. The co-captains were senior Beth Molloy and junior Diane Holz. Diane Holz also led the team in another way as she was awarded the Most Valuable Player trophy. Other award winners were Betsy Fleming, who was awarded the most improved trophy, and Kelly Kollman, who recieved the Coach's Award. Although many of the early matches were rained out and some of the matches were played in darkness, the season was both challenging and rewarding. Included in the Redskin netters' season was a rewarding 5-0 shutout victory over Huron. With only two seniors on the team and a promising reserve team the "Port Clinton Hills" tennis team will surely be a contender in the years to come.

Team members Kelly Kollman, Diane Holz, Betsy Fleming, and Miracle Hatmaker discuse their strategy before their matches.



Renee Homsy smashes back a return as Lisa Money backs her up.



Beth Molloy shows her form as she readies herself for a powerful forehand.

Ann Richards rushes for the ball as Lisa Kinsey watches.

CAGERS STRIKE

Following the most successful season (20-3) in PCHS's Cage history, this edition of the "Red-Hot Skins" looked a little sho key. Considerable action was seen with senior captain Tim Colston along with another letterman, Chris Vidoli. Other team members included seniors Dave Rohde and Dick Below, junior Eric Papcun, Greg Gresh, Jeff Robinson, Tom Chapman, and Dave Colston, and freshman Paul (P.J.) Colston. The season included excitement and disappointment. P.C. was never counted out of the SBC title run until the very end losing to Swanton 51-50.

Receiving varsity letters were Rohde, Below, Gresh, Robinson, Papcun, and P.J. Colston. Tim Colston made a new school record of 221 assists, was team captain, WDHO-TV Player of the Week, SBC 1st Team. Rohde made SBC 2nd Team. Duane Norman was Most Improved Sophomore and P.J. Colston Most Improved Freshman.

The reserves huddle for instructions during a time-out.

The Reserve Basketball Team finished with a record of 10-10, but this mark is rather misleading, as eight games were decided by less than two points. The team was led by freshman sensation Paul Colston and sophomore Duane Norman. With the type of exciting and competitive play shown by this team, the future looks bright for the Varsity. This year's team was coached by Don Drusbacky and assistant Von Graffin.

The Redskins gather after another hard fought game.

FROSH BASKETBALL

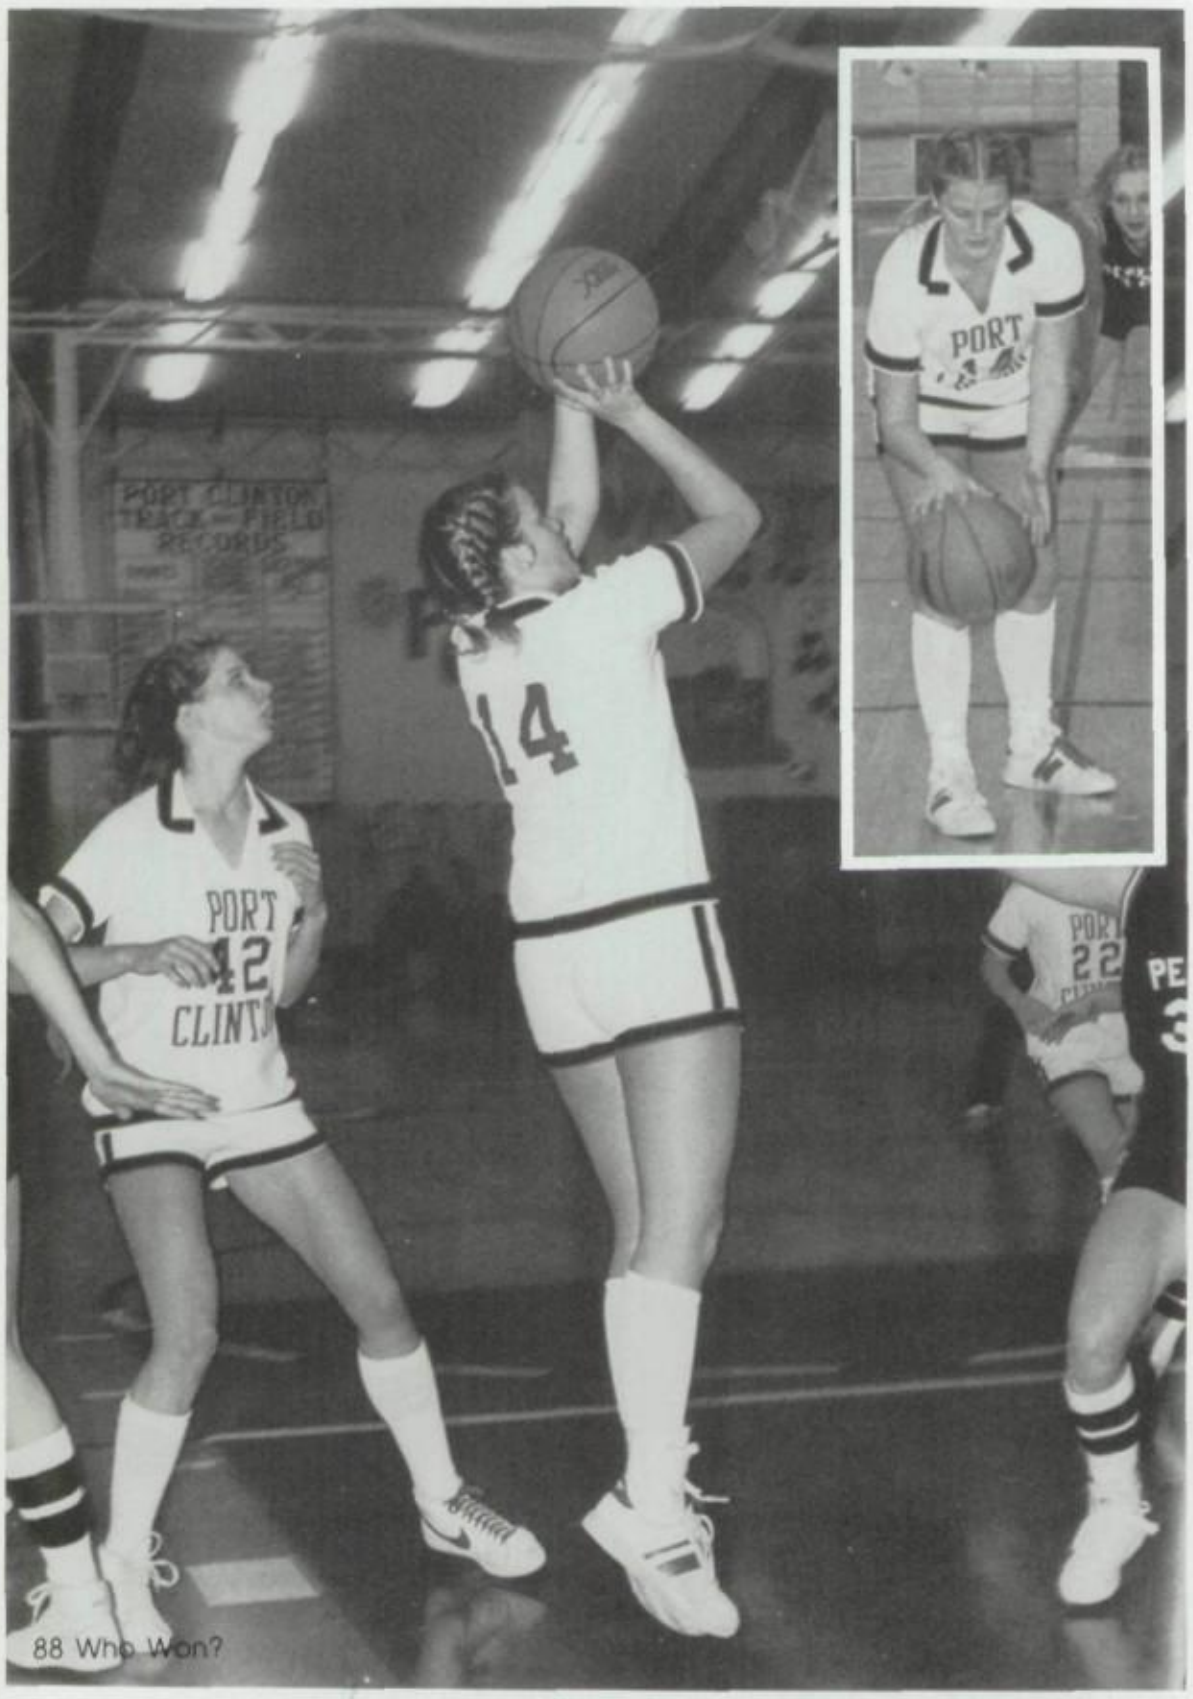
BASKETBALL:
A SEASON OF FIRSTS

Coaches Dan Timmons and Tom Brown are giving a PEP talk.

Brenda Wightman puts in another one.



The women's basketball team had a very productive season. Although finishing with a 8-14 record, the lady cagers showed some great teamwork and individual skills. Brenda Wightman smashed the school individual scoring record with 1,187 points in four years. The high point of the season was the first sectional win ever. Next year looks at least as bright with only one senior graduating and seven returning letterwomen. Coaches Tom Brown (Varsity) and Dan Timmons (Reserve) are eagerly anticipating September conditioning and the start of practice in October.

Sally Turner, Mary Jo Below, Judy Howerth and Amie Brough look to the court.

Although the team had two returning lettering upperclassmen, the younger grapplers did have their share of "pulling their weight." It was a mixture of these upper and lower classmen which made up the six district qualifiers: Mark Apple, Mark Hermes, John Lucas, Bruce Celek, Steve Malik, and Keith Shook.

These and other members deserve special mentioning. Pat Heckerd was awarded Most Improved. Mark Apple and Mark Hermes were co-captains. Bruce Celek and Hermes tied for Most Pins. Apple was also awarded the Most Valuable Wrestler.

The Redskin tankers swam to a 5-5 duel meet record, with coach Jeff Coon at the helm and with co-captains Dave Bradshaw and Jack Bredbeck leading the way. This record is not a valid representation of the teams true power, however, as they won the Port Clinton Relays and set five new school records. The new records were set in the 50 freestyle (Chip Bodie), in the 100 butterfly (Micky Coon), in the 100 freestyle (Jack Bredbeck), in the 100 backstroke (David Bradshaw), and in the 400 freestyle relay (the team of Jack Bredbeck, Dan Gels, Dave Bradshaw, and Chip Bodie). Todd Carter was once again the conference diving champion and was the only Redskin that competed in the State Swimming and Diving Meet in Canton. With three record holders returning the team expected a very bright future.

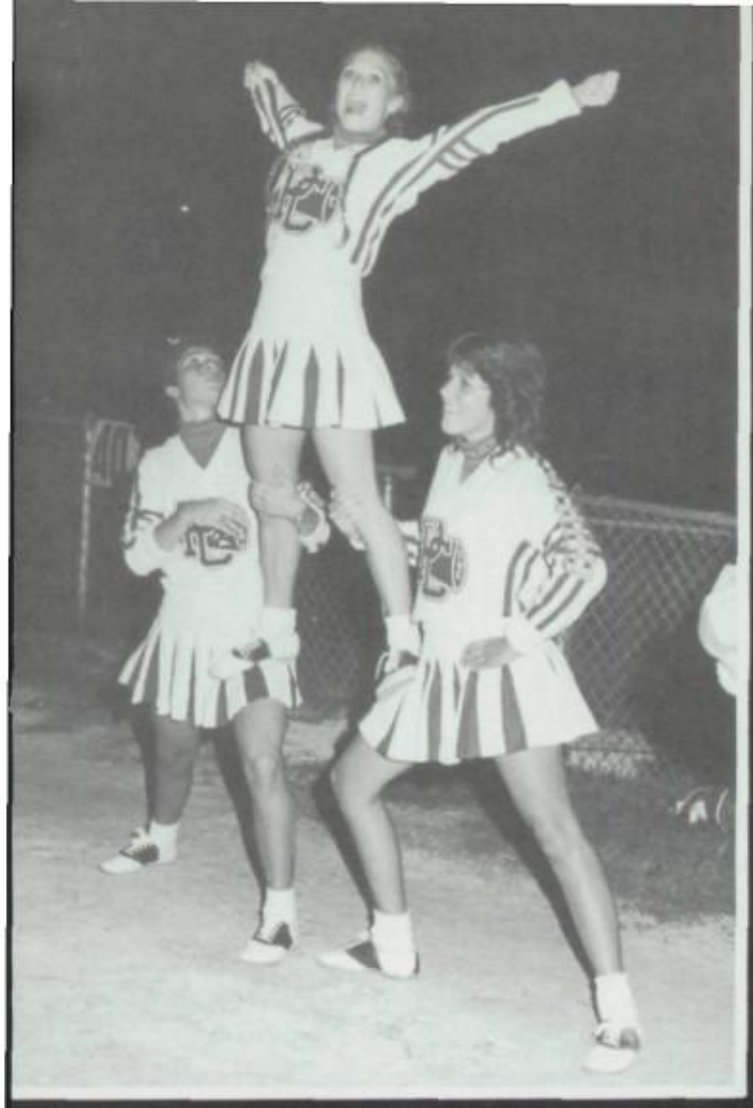
kinda, Teri Deak, Cathy Bihun. Missing: Stacey Ash.



The combined squads cheer for the Skins during pregame.

All three squads attended summer camp at Baldwin-Wallace College. The varsity squad placed 2nd, the JV 5th, and the frosh earned an outstanding freshman award. The individual talents of T Mahoney, Lori Kokinda, and Lynn Gresh placed 1st, 3rd, and 4th respectively. Marianne Vidoli and Chris Gruber made the top ten and freshman Kris Vogt received an outstanding freshman plaque. At Nationals I placed 31st out of 200 individuals. The varsity's glove routine placed 2nd, and their Popeye skit placed 3rd. In March the varsity took 1st place at the World Cheerleading Classic.

JV: Jan Lukac, Chris Gruber, Patty Plumlee, Steph Dowdle, and Sandra Arndell, captain.

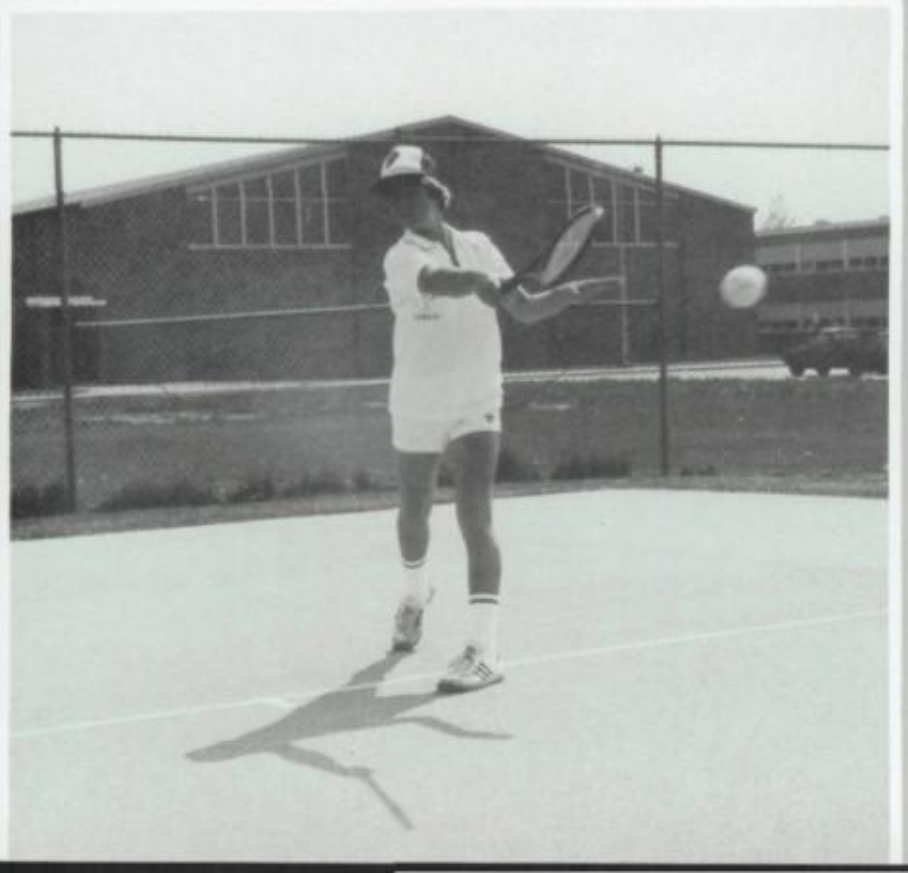
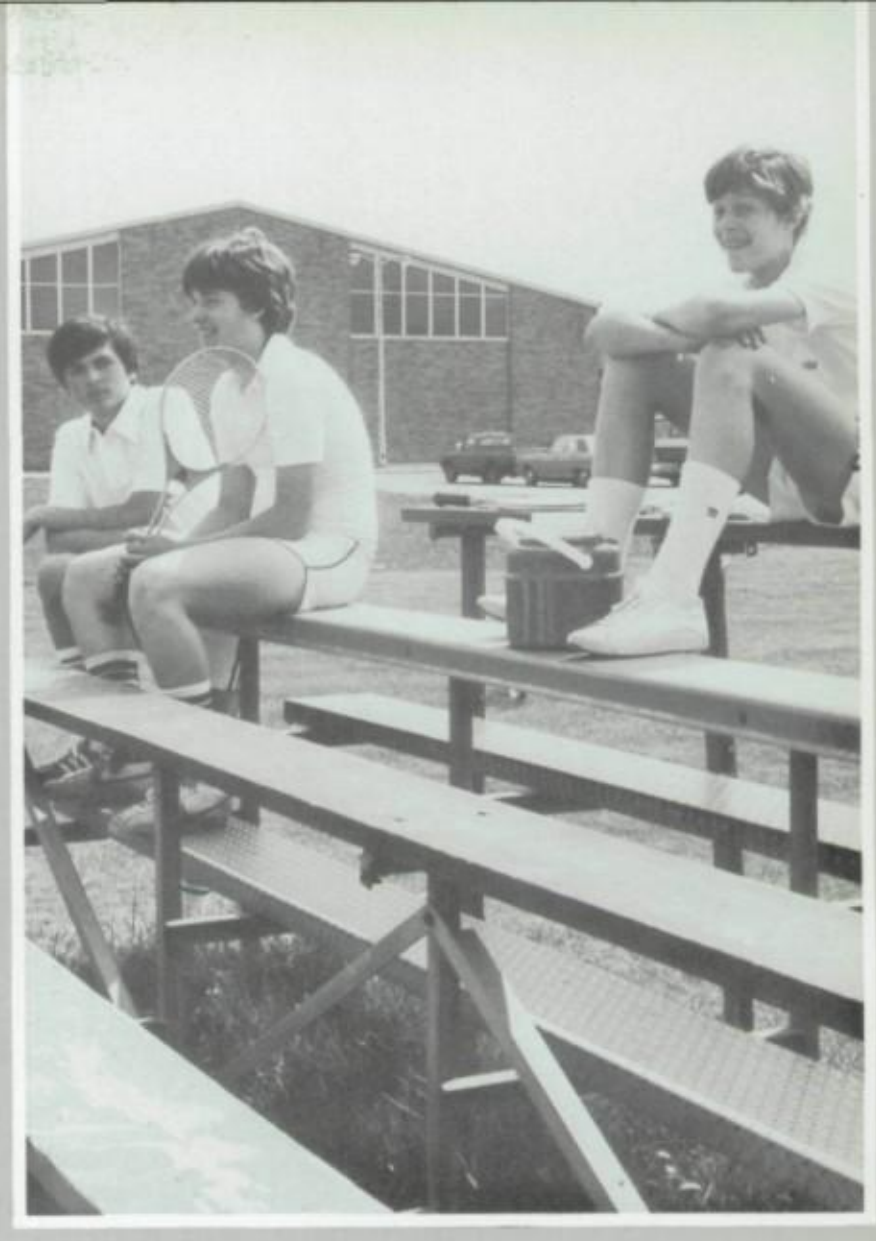
Steve Theodorovich— How did you hit that ball??

Kip Bidwell shows a great forehand.





Todd Heslet feels he has everything under control!

THE P.C. Netters did relatively better than last year, thanks to many outstanding players. Their record was very good, and two players even went on to sectionals. These two players were Eric Sandenberg and Kevin Keefer, who placed 3rd there. The team was again coached by Russell Leist.

BASEBALL

9-6 League record good for 1st place!

The league was exciting until the very end when the Redskin varsity baseball team beat Tiffin Calvert to tie 1st place in the SBC. Coaches Dan Timmons and Jim Scalf headed an excellent team with Jim Wildman, Eric Papcun and Duane Norman named first team All-SBC. Scott Appell was named second team. Captains were Jim Dole, Jim Ralph and Jim Wildman who also had the best earned run average with .44. Most valuable player this year was Eric Papcun. Bob Smith, Terry Galway, Tim Scott and Tim Colston also received mentioning. Despite great strength and a good team the varsity was beaten by the Alumni 2-7.

HOMECOMING '8

October 9-10 Begin Festivities

Despite losing the football game to Tiffin Calvert, 35-0, Homecoming proved to be a very joyous occasion. Each class contributed to the festivities by building a float and participating in the parade. During the halftime of the football game, the class attendants and their escorts were introduced. The freshman class was represented by Sally Turner and her escort Tom Flynn, and the sophomores, by Debbie Pence and her escort Mickey Coon. The junior attendant was Donna Simpson with Bob Duhamel as her escort. Representing the seniors were Sheryl Stonerook and John Biro. Mary Jo Wenzinger, escorted by Pat Griffin was chosen as the Queen's runner-up, and Sue Turner as the Homecoming Queen with Tim Colston as her escort. The Dance was held Saturday, October 10, with Beggar's Opera as the band of the evening.

Jobie Wenzinger works contently on the winning float.

Sheryl Stonerook and John Biro await the results of the float competition.

Ann French, Mike McLaury, Heidi Johannsen and Jeff Gerber relax during the dance.

Lori Kokinda adds her artistic talents to the Junior float.

Brian Oleska and Betsy Fleming enjoy a romantic evening at the dance.

Dwayne Beane, hard at work.

PIGSKIN SWING

The annual Pigskin Swing, held November 13, was sponsore for the first time by the Future Homemakers of America Club After breaking with another tradition, the dance was casua instead of dress-up. Live Wire provided the music to a nea capacity crowd. Since the dance was billed as single or cou ple, a greater variety of students showed up than in the past

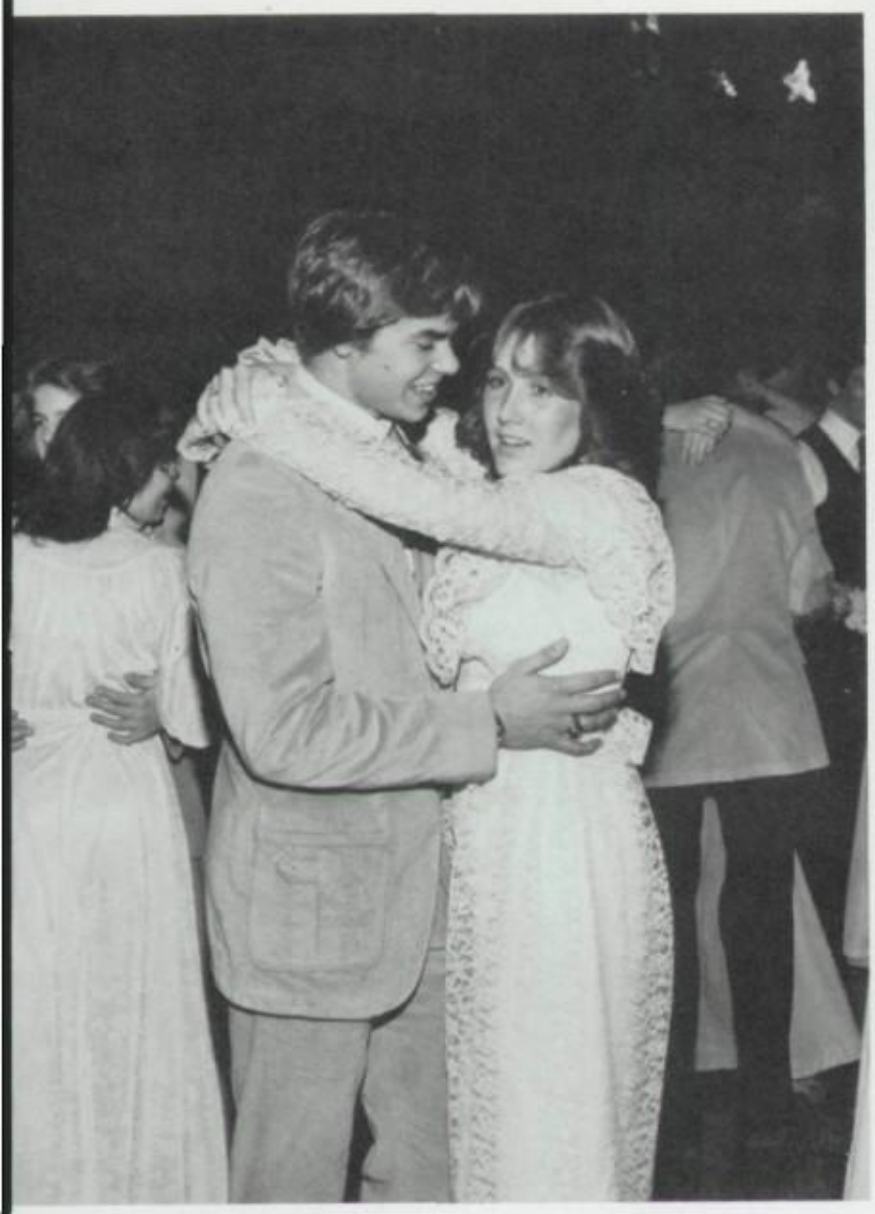
FM-104's Buck McWilliam provides the music.



Enjoying the evening are Kim Howerth and Jim Bredbeck.

The theme, "Rockin' the Paradise," highlighted the Winter Formal, held January 23rd. The cheerleaders, under the direction of advisor Miss Ida Bacso, added a new twist to this year's dance by featuring disc-jockey Buck McWilliams from Toledo's FM-104 instead of having the traditional band. During the evening couples were awarded albums and posters by McWilliams.

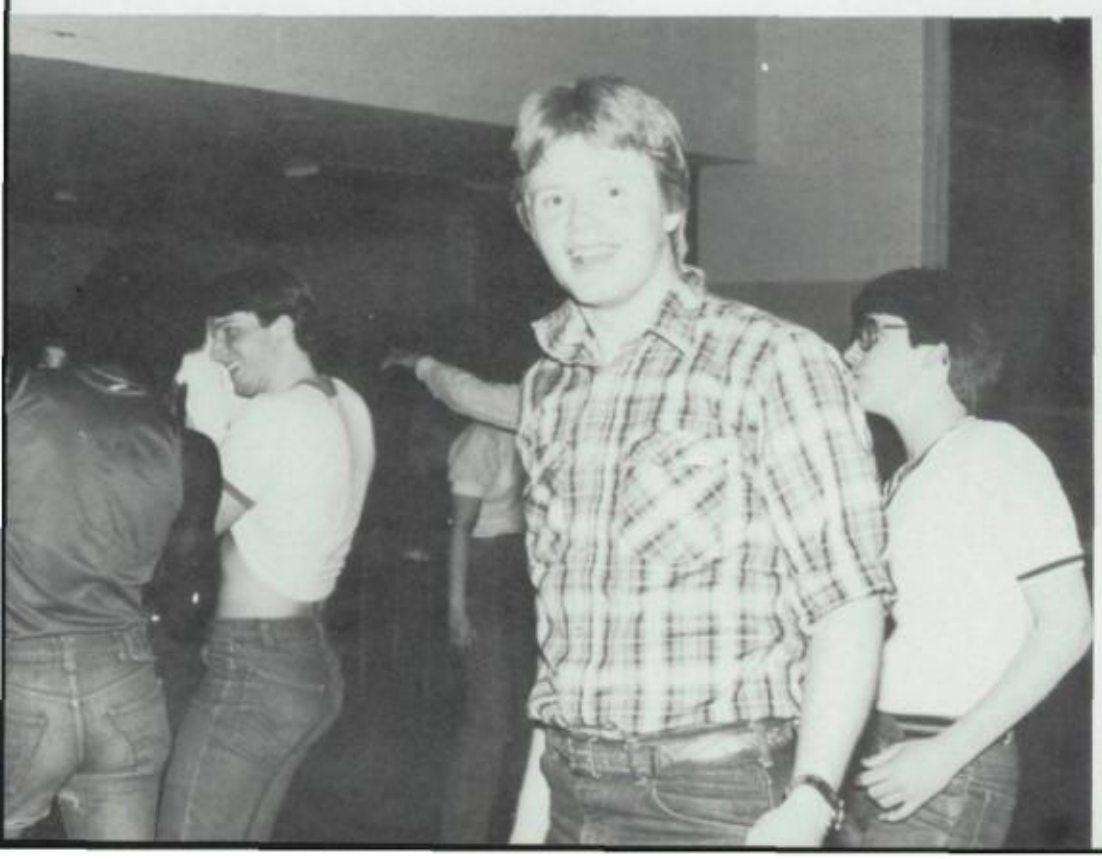
COMPUTER DANCE

In April, Key Club sponsered a Computer Dance for the student body. Students who wished to participate filled out a questionnaire prior to the dance. When arriving at the dance, the computer had matched each person with ten compatible people. Along with the lists, there were refreshments and good music from FM 103.

Vince Parker doesn't care that he's not compatible.

At the top of Jim Fishburn's list is Laurie Gittinger.

Sundy Doty and Amy Magi are compatible.



PROM

"BEST OF TIMES

The 1982 Junior-Senior Prom was held at the Ramada Inn in Fremont. The theme was "Best of Times", which is the senior class's theme song. Instead of a regular band, the junior class decided on getting a disc jockey from FM 104. 92 couples enjoyed the atmosphere, and seniors enjoyed their last formal dance. A few devoted juniors worked to make this year's Prom a success.

SOPHOMORES

The class of 1984 had a very promising school year in 1981-82.

Their spirit, hard work and dedication was rewarded with second place in the Homecoming float competition. Tapping this, the Sophomores earned a handsome sum of money by receiving first place in the all-school magazine drive.

Always a highlight of the year, the Sophomores picked out their class rings.

SENIORS

Much to the surprise of the faculty and student body, the class of 1982 successfully completed their final year at Port Clinton High School. For the second consecutive year, the class of '82 finished first in the float competition with their theme "Stiffin Tiffin". Classmate Susan Turner was crowned Homecoming Queen, with Mary Jo Wenzinger as her runner-up. The class continued the year with high spirits as the committees planned the many senior activities, and students ordered their graduation paraphernalia. Many long hours were spent in preparation for the future whether that was college, jobs, or marriage. As graduation approached, the class looked forward to the summer and whatever the future held in store for them.
